

1. Both Louis Armstrong and Ella Fitzgerald were masters of the style of singing called 'scat.' What is the musical meaning of the word scat?
2. In city did Louis Armstrong grow up and learn his music?
3. Besides singing, what instrument did Louis Armstrong play?
4. After World War II, Louis Armstrong became known as 'Ambassador Satch.' Why?
5. Louis Armstrong played a concert to 100,000 fans during a concert to celebrate which new African nation's independence?
6. Ella Fitzgerald was born in Virginia but moved to Yonkers NY as a girl. In which part of New York City did she finally get her big break?
7. Ella Fitzgerald wrote the lyrics form one of her most famous songs. What was it?
8. Ella Fitzgerald had perfect pitch. What is perfect pitch?
9. Ella was considered a virtuoso singer. What is a virtuoso?
10. Ella Fitzgerald had a recording career that lasted more than 50 years. She also won 13 of the music industry's top awards. What are these awards called?
11. Both Ella and Louis had to escape from extreme poverty to become successful musicians. What is extreme poverty?
12. Louis Armstrong spent the power he got from being a celebrity on advocating for freedom and equality for all races of peoples. When you get your own fifteen minutes of fame, what will be your cause? What will you want to spend your power on? What is the world do you want to fix?

DEFINE.....

tempo		a capella
allegro	waltz	legato
adagio	vivace	staccato
andante	timbre	improvise
unison	meter	ostinato
dynamics	treble
forte	bass
piano	crescendo
rubato	decrescendo
refrain	D.C. al Fine	