

Oklahoma Study Guide

| | | | |
|---|---|--|---|
|  "Oh What a Beautiful Mornin'" is sung by Curly as the opening song. He works as a cowhand and is on his way to ask Laurey, a farmer, on a date. |  Curly invites Laurey to the Box Social. He sings her the song "Surrey with the Fringe on the Top." |  Ali Hakim is the peddler who buys Will's presents from Kansas city so Will can get his $50 back. |  Judd works for Laurey on the farm. He lives in her smokehouse. Judd likes Laurie, but she is a little afraid of him. She uses him to make Curly jealous. |
|  Aunt Eller is Laurey's Aunt. She runs the auction for the school house. | Ado Annie "Cain't Say No" to kisses from boys.  |  Ado Annie and Will Parker eventually get married. | Curly and Laurey fall in love.  They sing "People Will Say We're in Love." |
|  The Dream Ballet was Laurey's nightmare about Judd. |  "Kansas City" sung by Will Parker when he gets back from Kansas City. Will brings back $50 worth of gifts including the "Little Wonder." |  Will gives Annie an "Oklahoma Hello" That is a big old kiss that is a lot better than a "Persian Goodbye." |  Curly visits Judd in the smokehouse and tries to convince Judd to kill himself. Curly comments on Judd's gun and rope in the smokehouse. He also notices all the posters of naked women on the walls. |
|  In the song "Out of my Dreams," Laurey's girlfriends tell her not to use the Egyptian smelling salts to decide about Curly, but she does anyway. |  Judd takes Laurey to the Box Social, Curly takes Aunt Eller. They sing and dance to "The Farmer and the Cowman Should be Friends."  | Curly sells his horse, his saddle and his gun to buy Laurey's basket at the Box Social.  |  Curly dates Gerty Cummings to make Laurey jealous. Gerty eventually marries Ali Hakim. She is portrayed with an annoying laugh. |
|  The Little Wonder is a viewer with girly pictures in it, and a blade that snaps out viciously. Judd buys it from Will Parker. |  Curley and Laurie are married. They sing "Oklahoma" the big song that sings about how they are going to be a new state. |  Judd and Curly Fight. Judd pulls a knife on Curly. In the fight, Judd falls on his own knife and kills himself. Curly is charged and found not guilty. | Curly and Laurie ride off in the "Surrey with the Fringe on Top" at the end of the show.  |